Shopping is not as simple as you may think! There are all sorts of tricks at play each time we reach out for that particular brand of product on the shelf.

Colouring for example varies according to what the producers are trying to sell. Health foods are packaged in greens yellows or browns because we think of these as healthy colours. Ice cream packets are often blue and expensive goods like chocolates are gold or silver.

When some kind of pain killer was brought out recently researchers found that the colours turned the customers off because they made the product look weak and ineffective. Eventually it came on the market in a dark blue and white package-blue because we think of it as safe and white as calm.

The size of a product can attract a shopper. But quite often a bottle doesn't contain as much as it appears to.

It is believed that the better-known companies spend on average 70 per cent of the total cost of the product itself on packaging!

The most successful producers know that it's not enough to have a good product. The founder of Pears soap who for 25 years has used pretty little girls to promote (推销) their goods came to the conclusion: "Any fool can make soap but it takes a genius to sell it."

66. Which of the following may trick a shopper into buying a product according to the text?

68. Which of the following is the key to the success in product sales?
A. The way to promote goods.
B. The discovery of a genius.
C. The team to produce a good product.
D. The brand name used by successful producers.

69.According to the passage, we know that _____.
A. making soap is so easy that any fool in the world can make it.
B. greens, yellows or silver are considered to be healthy colours.
C. 25 years ago, the founder of Pears soap was a pretty girl herself.
D. the size of a product can have an effect on the shoppers.

70. Which of the following would be the best title for this text?

A doctor entered the hospital hurriedly after being called in for an important surgery （外科手术）. He found the boy's father in the hall waiting worriedly.

On seeing him, the father cried out, "Why did you take all this time to come? Don't you know that my son is in danger? Don't you have any sense of duty? "

The doctor smiled and said, "I am sorry. I wasn't in the hospital and I came as fast as I could after receiving the call and now, I wish you'd calm down so that I can do my work. "

"Calm down? !What if your son was in this room right now? Would you calm down? If your own son dies while waiting for a doctor, then what will you do? "said the father angrily. The doctor smiled again and replied, "We will do our best and you should also pray for your son's healthy life. "

The surgery took some hours after which the doctor went out happy, "Thank goodness!Your son is saved!"And without waiting for the father's reply he carried on his way running by saying, "If you have any questions, ask the nurse. "

"Couldn't he wait some minutes so that I can ask about my son's state? "shouted the father when seeing the nurse minutes after the doctor left.

The nurse answered, tears coming down her face. "His son died yesterday in a road accident. He was at the funeral（葬礼） when we called him for your son's surgery. And now that he saved your son's life, he left running to finish his son's funeral. "

Modern zoos are different from those built fifty years ago. Those zoos were places where people could go to see animals from many parts of the world. The animals lived in cages with iron bars. Although the zoo keepers took good care of them, many of the animals did not feel comfortable, and they often felt ill.

In modern zoos, people can see animals in more natural conditions. The animals are given more freedom in nature. Even the appearance of zoos has changed. Trees and grass grow in cages, and water flows through the places the animal live in. There are few bars; In an American zoo, the visitor can walk through a huge special cage that is filled with trees, some small animals and many birds, and large enough for birds to live naturally. In a zoo in New York, with the us of special night, people can observe certain animals that are active only at night, when most zoos are closed. Some zoos have special places for visitors to watch animals that live in the desert or under water.

Modern zoos not only show animals to visitors, but also keep and save rare animals. For this reason, fifty years from now, the grandchildren of today's visitors will still be able to enjoy watching these animals.
